

THE BLACK CAUCUS OF THE AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION, INC.

“Commitment to Excellence”

For Immediate Release
April 11, 2017
Press Contact: Shaundra Walker
marketing@bcala.org

BCALA Announces the Inaugural Walter Dean Myers Memorial Lecture 2017

The Black Caucus of the American Library Association, Inc. (BCALA) is pleased to announce the Inaugural Walter Dean Myers Memorial Lecture 2017, scheduled for June 24, 2017 from 3:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m. at the Palmer House Hotel, 17 E. Monroe St, Chicago, IL 60603. This event is co-sponsored by the Black Caucus of the American Library Association (BCALA), The American Association of School Librarians (AASL), The Association for Library Service to Children (ALSC), the Coretta Scott King Book Award Committee (CSK), the Ethnic & Multicultural Information Exchange Round Table (EMIERT), The Association for Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA), The Public Library Association (PLA) and Simon & Schuster, Inc.

The event will include an engaging panel discussion featuring Phoebe Yeh, Vice President and Publisher at Crown Books for Young Readers at Penguin Random House; librarians Jessica Anne Liddell, Karen Lemmons, and Janice Greenberg; and award-winning author Jason Reynolds.

"Walter Dean Myers' career spanned 45 years writing over 100 books for children and young adults. His contributions to the field of literature is unparalleled and worthy of praise and honor. " said BCALA President, Denyvetta Davis. "BCALA is excited to host this first Walter Dean Myers Memorial Lecture."

The Black Caucus of the American Library Association serves as advocate for the development, promotion and improvement of library services and resources to the nation's African American community. This esteemed national organization also provides leadership for the recruitment and professional development of African American librarians. Established in 1970, BCALA is a registered nonprofit organization with 501©3 IRS status. All donations to BCALA support our mission and are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. For more information, please visit <http://www.bcala.org>.